

/ Jonty Green

/ Elle Heath

/ Charlie Lloyd

/ Jake Williams

/ Ant Edwards

/ Ed Slater

/ Heather Marshall

/ Charlotte Millward

/ Nathan Darby

WAKE NATIONALS

The 2024 Midlands Nautique UK Wake Nationals took place in July at Xtreme Wake, Grendon Lakes in Northamptonshire. The event was spread over two days with an additional optional day for practice. The weekend was full of sun, smiles, and skills and the beautiful weather showed the Nautique G23 Paragon in all her glory.

Words : Maisy Humphries Photos : Mantis Pro Media

The standard of riding across wakesurf and wakeboard categories was high with several mobes and 720s showcased in the wakeboard finals and shuvs and body varials on the wakesurf side.

HIGHLIGHTS

- Charlotte Millward claiming the Open Women's Wakeboard title
- Nathan Darby winning a closely fought battle with Joe Humphries to win Open Men Wakeboard
- Emilia Whitehouse reclaiming her Open Women's Surf Style title
- Sam Buckles' first national title in Open Women's Skim
- Newcomer Ed Slater raising the bar in Open Men's Surf Style and ultimately claiming his maiden title
- Ant Edwards putting on a masterclass in Open Men's Skim to the retain a title for another year

THANK YOU

Wakeboard UK would like to thank Xtreme Wake for once again being the best hosts. The venue brought everyone together, providing food, drinks and open space for spectators to watch all our riders' skills. Thank you also to everyone who showed up over the weekend, whether it was to spectate, ride, volunteer or judge. You all made the first ever Midlands Nautique Wakesurf and Wakeboard Nationals one to never forget!

Thanks also to all the sponsors

- @midlands_nautique @xtreme_wake @liquidforceuk @stripespoole @boatwrightcars
- @mantispromedia @broclothing @extremesportsperformance @centraltsolutionsltd
- @obrienwateruk @ultrasporteu @lifejacketskin @frogsandfriendsuk @dryrobe
- @themantisboys @ldbwakeschool @xtremegene @ukwake @bwswhq @IWWFfed

